

Coaching Code of Conduct

To assure that all the participants in the Sno-King Youth Club receive the full measure of benefit from their participation; and in recognition of the leadership model that my actions represent to the participants, I fully subscribe to the following code of conduct:

- I will always endeavor to assure that my coaching focus is that all players will:
 - Have Fun
 - Learn the Fundamentals of Team Play
 - Learn the Fundamentals of the Sport and Sportsmanship
- I will always act in a sportsman like manner in all dealings with players, officials, and spectators.
- I will follow the rules of Sno-King Youth Club to the spirit of the law, always supporting the goal that “Everyone Gets to Play”
- As coach, I will be the sole representative to discuss an official’s decision during games.
- I will coach aggressive play by my team, but I will not tolerate unnecessary roughness or intimidating tactics by my team or players.
- I will not allow smoking or alcoholic beverages at any Sno-King Youth Club game or practice session.

Disciplinary Action: The HEAD coach will be held responsible for their assistant coaches, parents, and players during practices and games. If there are any behavioral issues with coaches, parents, and players the HEAD Coach will receive the warning or suspension.

SKYC HAS A ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY REGARDING BAD BEHAVIOR TOWARDS OTHER COACHES, SPECTATORS, PLAYERS AND OFFICIALS.

I understand and will actively support this Code of Conduct.
